Northern Colorado DMR Club - W0DMR

Distribution of Frequency Assignments to: KT0L, W1VAN, KB0VGD and K0MLG as individuals

- CCARC was notified that the Northern Colorado DMR Club (W0DMR) has dissolved
- Most W0DMR Frequency Coordination Assignments were made under multiple callsigns (as both club and individual assignments)
 - W0DMR, KT0L, W1VAN, KB0VGD and K0MLG
- CCARC worked with the (former) W0DMR leadership to transfer club frequency assignments of all active repeaters operating within their coordinated frequency assignments
- Individual frequency assignments remain as-is
- Statements of concurrence were obtained for all transfers
- The W0DMR club user account remains active but has no entries

Going Forward - 2025

Database Maintenance

- Reviewing all records as time permits

Process Enhancements

- Will continue and improve on-air monitoring of repeaters

Importance of Records

- If your repeater data is incorrect, and interference happens, then you will likely be the responsible party.
- If you do not respond to CCARC correspondence, your information will become stale, and you may be de-coordinated.
- Assure that your Contact(s) Information is accurate. This information is essential should you desire to transfer a coordination.
